

The number of Canadian Internet Exchange Points in Canada is rapidly growing. Where there were only two Canadian IXPs in 2012, there are now seven IXPs of differing sizes and stages of operation located across Canada.

Representatives of three Canadian IXPs will discuss the state of IXP's in Canada, the challenges faced in growing IXPs, the benefits of interconnection, operational issues and best practices, and views on how to foster the CA IXP community.