

Now that the CRTC has set out the costing for ISPs to connect their fibre networks to the ILECs and Cablecos, what happens next? How will you build out your network so you can access fibre to the home and fibre to the business? This session will help you understand what is involved in building out your fibre network and what the budgetary costs will be.