

Listen as the panelists discuss the challenges and opportunities of various service delivery models using owned, leased or a combination of various infrastructures for service delivery. Building infrastructure is expensive – does it still make sense to do it with the “commoditization” of bandwidth and the growing use of IP as the transport?