

Leveraging Government Funding To Build Out Infrastructure

We will identify Federal and Provincial programs that can propel your companies through the critical stages of an ISP's expansion and technology adoption.

This includes direct funding programs, programs for training and R&D, and how to work with regional funding agencies.

Technology-driven companies often face significant financial challenges. We will cover how to develop a funding road-map to match the appropriate funding to a business and product life-cycles.